Course Outline

	SHIC has rolling calendars and have multiple start dates for the convenience of students to accommodate students in packaged courses in order to have minimum study gaps between the courses.
Monitoring Course Progress	SHIC monitors the academic progress of all students in line with its Monitoring International Student Academic Progress Procedure. A term is defined as 10 study weeks, and students must achieve competency in at least 50% of the units undertaken in each term. Academic progress is reviewed on a regular basis, and students are advised early if their results indicate they are at risk. Where a student's progress falls below 50% in a term, a formal warning letter is issued, and an intervention plan is implemented. If progress does not improve in the following term, a second warning is issued. Students who remain below 50% for two consecutive terms will receive a breach notice and may be reported to the Department of Home Affairs. Before any report is made, students are informed of their right to access the complaints and appeals process.
Reasonable adjustment	Students who have special needs such as physical or mental impairment will be assisted through the learning via training and assessment resources. Reasonable adjustments will be applied and recorded on the assessment resources.
Training Arrangements	Class sessions are planned to ensure that you have a mixture of practical and theoretical components and those classes cater for a wide variety of learning styles. Additionally, workplace practices and environments will be regularly simulated and used to conduct skills-based assessments in accordance with unit requirements. Students must attend 20 hours per week in the classroom Homework tasks may include research, readings from related course material and continuing to work on assessment tasks. Students are provided with a variety of course materials, including student assessments that comprise both knowledge and skill evaluations, learner guides, PowerPoint presentations, self-study guides, session plans, and various class activities. The classroom setting ensures that students have full access to the internet, whiteboards, and the support of a trainer and assessor, creating a comprehensive and supportive learning environment.
Additional Support	All students will complete a language literacy and numeracy assessment upon enrolment to determine their learning support needs. All students will be provided with a range of learning support options and resources to help you achieve competency. Where additional support needs have been identified an Individual Support Plan will be developed which may include: • Mentoring from trainers • Additional classes, tutorials and workshops • Online support and exercises for some courses • Computer and technology support • Referral to external support services • Reasonable adjustment to assessments

	Provision of additional support services will be provided where necessary to enable students to participate in the same way as any other person regardless of whether support services have been required.
Assessment Arrangements	Assessment will be conducted individually/in groups. You will be provided with a Student Assessment Booklet for each unit of competency which includes: • A full description of all assessment tasks for the unit of competency • Assessment instructions for each unit of competency • Assessment resources for each unit of competency • Details about when assessment will occur • Details about assessment submission There are a variety of assessment methods used for this qualification including: • Written questions • Projects • Case studies • Role Plays • Research • Reports • Students will be required to complete assessments both in class and in their own time. Trainers and assessors will provide detailed assessment requirements for each unit at the beginning of the delivery for that unit. Students will follow the assessor's instructions for submitting assessment tasks
Course Credit	SHIC can grant you credit towards your course for units of competency that you have already completed with another RTO or authorised issuing organisation. We can also grant you Credit for subjects or units you have completed where equivalence can be established between the unit in your course, and the subject or unit you have completed. There is no charge to apply for Credit. To apply, fill in the Credit Application Form and submit it as part of your enrollment. *Please refer to your Student Handbook for more information on Course Credit. As an international student you should note that where you are granted credit this will reduce your course duration and you will be informed of this in writing.
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)	Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a process where skills and knowledge that you have gained through work and life experience and other unrecognised training can be formally recognised. SHIC has a process that has been structured to minimise the time and cost to applicants and provides a supportive approach to students wishing to take up this option. You should ideally apply for RPL at the time of enrolment but you may also apply up to 2 weeks into your course. During the entry process and interview stage SHIC will discuss with you the process and options for RPL. Suitability is often determined on how much experience you have in a certain area, your work history and previous training. If RPL is determined as a possibility for you, you will be provided with a kit that will guide you in working through each unit to determine relevant skills and experience and identify whether you would be able to provide the required evidence. A trainer/assessor will be available to assist you throughout this process. *Please refer to our Student Handbook for more information on RPL. As an international student you should note that where you are granted RPL this will reduce your course duration and you will be informed of this in writing.
